P.O. Box 111
Saint James City, Florida 33956

Dear Sirs;

The Kiwanis Club of Greater Pine Island is pleased to offer you an opportunity to participate in the 2016 Taste of Pine Island held at Phillips Park on January 30 & 31, 2016. At the Taste of Pine Island your establishment will be able to showcase its merchandise as well as assist the Kiwanis in its effort to raise funds for its scholarship program.

The Kiwanis Club of Greater Pine Island has had the privilege of hosting the Taste of Pine Island annually since 2000 with its goal being twofold. First, the Kiwanis provides this event as an opportunity for local Island businesses to promote themselves. Secondly, Kiwanis uses this event as its major fundraiser to provide educational scholarships to deserving Pine Island students. In 2015 alone, Kiwanis was able to award $21,000.00 in educational scholarships due in large part, to the success of events such as the Taste of Pine Island. This accomplishment would not be possible without the participation of local businesses.

Please take a moment to discuss this opportunity with our Craft Vendor Coordinator Scarlett Britton, (239) 245-3693 or Event Coordinator Tim Saulsbery, (239) 910-2263.
